

Fairview Holds Annual Picnic

NINETY-NINE PIES AND ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY QUARTS OF ICE CREAM DEVoured. NO PLACE FOR THE DYSPHEPTIC.

Despite the heavy downpour of rain, a happy crowd of Fairviewites and their friends, numbering about 500, romped, played and ate, and otherwise had a rip-roaring good time at the annual picnic of the Fairview Union Sunday School held on Thursday last.

The picnic was under the direction of a committee consisting of Mrs. D. W. B. Young, Mrs. Ezra Deubler, Miss Cora Latch, Mrs. Arthur Yonker, Mr. Eli P. Ewing, and Mr. Lyle Smith, and nothing was left undone by them to make the day a gala one for Fairview.

The sporting events, under the direction of Miss Marion Ewing and Mr. Owen Schmidt, were hotly contested, and prizes for the winners of the greatest number of points were awarded to Miss Anna Tibbins and Master Adan Horsely, while Mrs. Arthur Yonker and Miss Mayne Kirk carried off highest honors in the booby class. The following is a list of winners of several of the events:

For Girls.

100-yards dash, Miss Anna Tibbins.
50-yards dash, Miss Gladys Tibbins.
Peanut scramble, Miss Henrietta Deubler.
Three-legged race, Misses Anna Kirk and Anna Latch.
Shoe race, Miss Anna Tibbins.
Quoits, Miss Mildred and Miss Jeanette Wickward.

For Boys.

100-yards dash, Adan Horsely.
50-yards dash, James Deubler.
Three-legged race, Bootsie Sewell and Clarence Sassman.
Crab race, Adan Horsely.
Wheelbarrow race, James Deubler.
Shoe race, Adan Horsely.
Pie race, Adan Horsely.
High jumping, Clarence Sassman.

In the afternoon a baseball game between the ladies and the men was an interesting feature, the former winning by the score of 27 to 4.

The magnitude of the feast that was spread out for the frolickers can be realized in that 99 pies, 150 quarts of ice cream, 800 rolls, and 80 quarts of lemonade were consumed.

TARIFF FILED FOR NEW GAS RATES.

The Counties Gas and Electric Company has filed a new tariff of gas rates for its Main Line District (Overbrook, Bala, Academy, Ardmore, Wynnewood, Merion, Haverford, Bryn Mawr, Rosemont, Villa Nova, Gladwyn, Narberth, Cynwyd, Wayne, St. Davids, Radnor, Strafford, Llanerch, Berwyn, Devon, Daylesford, Paoli, Green Tree, Malvern and surrounding municipalities); for its Norristown District (Norristown, Bridgeport, and surrounding municipalities), and for its Conshohocken District (Conshohocken, West Conshohocken and surrounding municipalities). The new tariff becomes effective on September 15th, 1919, and makes an increase of 10 cents per 1,000 cubic feet in the cost of gas consumed.

As an example of the increase made by the new tariff, the new rate for the first 10,000 cubic feet or any part thereof per month will be $1.20 gross and $1.10 net.

MEMORIAL TO THEIR SON.

As a memorial to their son, Harold M. Pierson, who died June 5, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pierson, of Wayne, have paid off the $10,000 mortgage on the Wayne Presbyterian Church, of which Rev. Dr. William A. Patton is pastor.

Getting Ready for the Annual Labor Day Tennis Tournament

The members of the Narberth Tennis Association are "slapping up their weapons" and getting ready for the annual Labor Day Tournament. The playing will be on the courts at Elmwood and Essex avenues.

The tournament will open on Saturday afternoon, August 30th, be continued all day Labor Day, Monday, September 1, and on as many subsequent days as are required to complete the schedule.

The Tournament Committee has already decided that there will be men's singles and doubles, and they hope to have ladies' singles and doubles and mixed doubles.

But whether the three latter contests can be arranged will depend on whether enough of the women members of the club will enter. The Committee will be glad to hear from any of the women in regard to this matter.

So remember, tennis players—women as well as men, the Labor Day Tournament will start on Saturday afternoon, August 30. Spend the intervening time getting in shape for the big event of the year. Announcement will be made later giving full particulars regarding entries.

Notice to all Property Owners

Write to John H. Rex, County Treasurer, Norristown, Pa., giving you address and ask for county tax bill sending 2-cent stamp for return postage. Or send check for 2 mills per dollar on assessment, including 3-cent stamp for receipt.

After September 15th bills will not be sent, but will be given to delinquent tax collector for collection with 5% penalty added.

Pay your county taxes early.

STATE FIRE MARSHAL BEGINS SURVEY IN LOWER MERION.

Orders Clean-Up of Rubbish Piles and Destruction of Fire Traps.

William C. Wilkins, Deputy State Fire Marshal, Thursday began a two months' survey of fire conditions in Lower Merion Township by visiting fifty business establishments and other places at Ardmore.

In some of the places he found collections of rubbish or other dangerous conditions and served notice on occupants or owners to correct the trouble under the State law, which renders recalcitrant persons liable to a fine of $25 a day for every day the condition remains unsatisfactory.

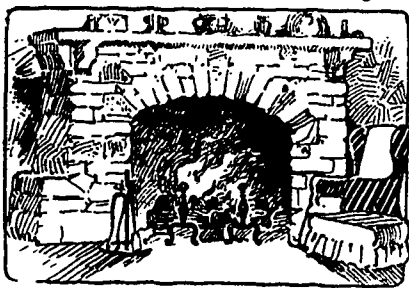

Several buildings were found to be so bad that the owners are getting notice to tear them down or remodel them. The Deputy Marshal will visit every town on the Main Line and will see that his orders are followed out or will turn complaints over to the District Attorney for action.

New Series Building and Loan Stock

A new series will be opened by the Narberth Building and Loan Association Thursday evening, September 4th, and the Directors will be at the Fire House from 7 until 9 to receive subscriptions.

This new series will be the twenty-eighth, and from all indications will be larger than the twenty-seventh, which ran over one thousand shares.

For the benefit of the new residents of Narberth, would say that the Narberth Building and Loan Association is not an experiment, but has been in operation for over twelve years and has been so successful that last year it earned for its stockholders eight per cent., and has never had any property on which it loaned come back on its hands.

The shares of the Association are $200, and each share calls for the payment of one dollar each month until the amount paid in, together with the earnings, equals $200, and it takes a little over eleven years to mature each series.

It is not necessary to be a borrower in order to be a stockholder, and if you feel that you can spare five dollars a month for eleven and a half years and at the end of that time you will receive one thousand dollars, you will realize that systematic saving is better than occasionally placing a few dollars in the saving bank, where it draws 3½% interest, while your Building and Loan stock is making 8%. There is a small fine of ten cents a share so that you will not forget that you must pay your part each month, and it soon becomes a habit to think that on the first Thursday of each month you should pay your dues into the Building and Loan Association.

The Directors will be glad to explain the Building and Loan idea to any one at their next meeting in September and will also welcome subscriptions from the new residents as well as the old for the new series. Just at this time when so many properties are changing hands in Narberth, there is no question of investing all the money that the Association has on property in Narberth, and it is not necessary to go outside of the Borough to place loans, and the larger the new series the more money can be advanced to home buyers on Narberth property.

It is a pleasure for the stockholders to think that their money is helping a neighbor to buy his home and at the same time paying the stockholder eight per cent. and secured by property that he can look at every time he goes out of his own house.

Remember the date—September 4th—7 until 9 in the evening, at the fire house.

NARBERTH GIVES AUTOCAR A GAME

TEN INNINGS OF EXCITEMENT ON THE HIGH SCHOOL GROUNDS

Last Saturday afternoon it seemed that at first the Narberth team decided to let Autocar win the game, because they needed one; but in the fifth and sixth innings they changed their mind, making four runs to tie the score, which tied through the ninth inning. In the tenth they decided they did not want the game and threw it away to Autocar, allowing them to win the game by a final score of 9 to 4.

"Bill" Simpson acted like a ball player, but the rest of the bunch did not seem to be able to connect with our old friend, ex-pitcher "Bobby" Gibson, who did allow them a total of nine hits.

Lafitte's arm was not in the best of shape and "Bill" Durbin tried to help him out in the tenth inning, but too much damage had already been done.

The other games in the league were all surprises; Dan beat Dobson by a score of 4 to 1; Lansdowne surprised Drexel Hill with a 4 to 0 shut-out. This changes the appearance of the percentage list, tying Dobson and Dan for first place, tying Narberth and Drexel Hill for third, and Lansdowne and Autocar bringing up the rear with an even percentage.

Next Saturday, the 16th, the Narberth team, with their loyal rooters, will journey to Lansdowne to play on the Union A. A. grounds, and put the Narberth team among the leaders.

On the following Saturday we journey to Drexel Hill, and after that play Dun & Company on the home grounds. The Labor Day schedule will be Dobson at home in the morning and Autocar at Ardmore in the afternoon.

Editorial

NARBERTH'S YOUNG MEN.

To the Editor of Our Town:

Dr. Frank Crane's article in the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin of August 12, mentions a new work which the Knights of Columbus are undertaking in establishing community centres to get hold of boys up to 21 years of age, in order to assist them in right living. It seems that boys of this age are to be urged to use the system of community centres, consisting of baths, gymnasiums, rooms for games or classes for studies, billiard parlors, lounging rooms, reading rooms, etc., all under proper supervision.

In Dr. Crane's article, he mentions that the boy problem or young man problem is a serious one and communities should give it very serious attention. He also states punishment does not reform; what the weaker brother needs is encouragement and opportunity to occupy idle time with clean, healthy amusement.

The Knights of Columbus program also includes a legal aid bureau with representatives in the lower courts to aid the first offender. This organization certainly should be commended on instituting work of this character which every one must agree is admirable service to boys and young men, when they are away from their own homes and under influences which are not exactly as they might be if they were among their families, and certainly any normal, healthy boy does crave the outdoors and associates of his own age.

What better work could the citizens of Narberth do than to follow along the general plan of the Knights of Columbus, whether it be a community centre or an organization that will accomplish the same purpose? We certainly need both a permanent out-door athletic field and a building or place such as a community centre for the young men, and especially the latter, as the idle hours are at night-time after school hours and business hours.

During the last few days the writer heard a story of three Narberth boys being arrested and held for court charged with stealing an automobile. It seems the boys were well acquainted with the owner of the car and had no intention of stealing it, simply having borrowed it to take a ride to a neighboring town. If it is true that punishment does not reform, it seems that taking boys into a criminal court is more likely to help to make them criminals than if the matter were adjusted outside of the courts.

These boys have many idle hours every evening to spend in our town, with practically no means of any wholesome recreation or amusement, and it is not at all surprising they should borrow an automobile or get into some mischief, taking advantage of someone who is more fortunately situated than themselves.

The fact of reading Dr. Crane's article and hearing the story of the boys' arrest on the same day, had the effect of bringing this condition to the writer's attention and offering it to Our Town for the consideration of its readers.

From one who is sincerely with the boys, one who was once a boy himself, who realizes that the boys of to-day will be the men of the next few years, and that the older ones must do all they can to make the environment right to make good citizens.

TOLERANT.

To the Editor of Our Town:

Dear Sir: As a citizen of Narberth I would like to know when the War Memorial Committee will give some sign of life—some intimation of what will be done in the way of a tribute to our service men. I understand that about $1,000 already has been raised and is drawing interest in the local bank, but whatever else the committee has done is a profound mystery to the community in general.

Some months ago—it seems like years ago—we were permitted to look at the picture of a beautiful and substantial clock tower. This picture ornamented the Post Office for a long time without any action being taken, so far as I know. I was told that another plan on foot was to remodel the firehouse to conform with the Y. M. C. A. architecture, with a suitable tablet to honor the Narberth fighters, at a cost of approximately $25,000. A third plan I recall was the building of a memorial athletic field. There may have been other suggestions, but I failed to hear of them.

And thus the situation stands. The town hopes to secure some kind of war remembrance, but the Titanic conflict ended nearly a year ago and arrangements for the remembrance seem to be as vague now as ever. Of course, I may be mistaken, but if something really has been done there is no reason why the news should be suppressed.

It has been whispered that the committee is so large as to be unwieldy and that a working force of four or five would act more effectively. This contention is supported by the fact that Philadelphia charter revisers insisted on a smaller City Council, a reform which they finally achieved.

Narberth wants a memorial that is both utilitarian and beautiful, and if the committee is unable to arrive at a decision speedily, an excellent idea would be to put the matter to a popular vote. I would like to hear from some member of the committee on this subject.

Courteously yours,

FREEMAN H. HUBBARD.

To the Editor of Our Town:

It was a sharp reminder of needed notes that you gave your readers by omitting a week's issue. Let us hope that more of us will try to do better and help you out with occasional notes when something local comes our way.

And something very local, persistently local, were the late rains that drowned our gardens and ruined wheat in shock. A friend with a farm over Bethayres way lost all his crop—$600 worth. Riding over the Morris and Gladwyn roads, where much farming is done, it was sad to see fields of ruined grain sprouting in the shock. Gardens are behaving curiously this year, so irregular in yield. Lima beans have had to be replanted several times, pole beans do not bear, and bush beans fail to form pods. Potato tops ripen and die too early, and cucumbers wilt after growing some fruit. Doubtless these things are due to the irregularities of the season in heat and wet.

CAMOLEN.

Dear Cub:

I hear that you are back again in the harness, and I am very glad to welcome you. Instead of addressing you in doggerel, have decided to come back to prose.

Did you know that the Henry the Fifth has had another disastrous fishing trip? Yes, toured about 60 miles to find one of those cedar water Jersey lakes that is supposed to be filled with many of those minnows which you love to describe, and could not reach home before 3 A. M.

For the benefit of the public we might add that the Henry the Fifth is a Ford car, and owing to the number of times that each part of the car has been replaced with a new part, it has earned its title.

The owner loves to hear the engine run. "Now, did you ever hear a Packard run smoother than that?" etc.

At last Lew the Less has arranged to move. We have been hearing about it for some time. He has taken at least ten apartments in Philadelphia, and has been on the point several times of building a bungalow. But he is going to move, sure.

By the way, that parking proposition on Chestnut avenue is the limit. There are a whole bunch of old ones there every night. If a fire starts on that street Charlie Noel will never get his engine through. They are all passe except the new Sedan of Andy Green's.

WATER COMPANY FINDS MATCH IN RADNOR COMMISSIONERS.

Three Months' Service Likely to Remain Unpaid Because Springfield Concern Sent Bill Receipted "in Full."

When it comes to a matter involving finesse, the Springfield Water Company has nothing on Thomas W. Hulme, real estate agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad and Commissioner of Radnor Township.

Early in 1918 the Commissioners made out a check at the annual meeting for $14 for each fireplug for the first six months of the year, and sent it to the Springfield Water Company, which gave a receipt in full. Meanwhile the water company went to the Public Service Commission and asked for a new schedule of rates and got it. The new schedule became effective April 1, 1918, according to the order of the Commission, and while it reduced rates to householders and fixed a rate of $7 a year for fireplugs, it devised an entirely new

Cub's Weekly Letter

To the Editor of Our Town:

It is rather disconcerting to one of my retiring and sensitive nature to have you place my letter in the first column of your valued periodical. Perhaps you gave me the front seat last week as a compliment, but such a modest nature as mine prefers to be placed in a back seat. I would write you oftener, did not other duties and pleasures prevent and were news not quite so scarce as it has been lately in the Borough. It was very kind of you to write such a jolly editorial, but to that sort of thing I must always object, as I am but a humble correspondent and very shy. If you care for the kind of news such as is appended, you are welcome to it, but if you don't think it interesting, my feelings will not be hurt if you consign the whole story to the waste basket.

This will introduce to your readers a recruit to the Main Line Fishing Club, a real fishing nut, Clarence Gallagher by name. The fact that he decided to make Narberth his home assures us at the start that Clarence is possessed of great wisdom. As he owns an automobile and is just crazy to use it for conducting fishing parties to the shore, he's surely in right with us "Home Town" folks, and we all crowd one another to shake his hand and bid him welcome. Stop that pushing—I saw him first!

Now to tell you about Clarence's initial bow to the local angling fraternity, the real class of the Town. He and our famous Street Commissioner furnished the transportation for an expedition to Green Creek, N. J., on August 1st. The start was made at 4 P. M. Among the notables present were James McCrea, a wise duck who has decided that Narberth is God's own country; James Witherow, the talented singer of Grove Place, whose basso profundo notes make a thunder storm sound like a squeak in comparison; Seb. Rudolph, the Second (don't overlook "the Second"), Hunter McDowell, who is a bachelor just now because his wife's in the country—hooray!—Lew Hess, the old hero of a thousand battles, and others. A mere 90-mile drive to the Bellevue-Stratford of Cape May County, and there they were on the east bank of the Delaware Bay. In the absence of any movies or great White Way or anything of the kind, the tired travelers decided to go to roost and prepare for the rigors of the strenuous day to follow. During the night old Boreas seemed to get the idea that the month was March instead of August and proceeded to blow accordingly. The shack in which our heroes were quartered began to sway back and forth, and while that didn't disturb the others, it acted as an alarm clock for the Commish. The Commish arises at 3 every morning, Sundays included—that shows what a remarkable person he is—and of course the day had begun for him. But the trouble is that he tried to start the day for the others, and there naturally arose a few objections. Not a bit deterred, however, this early bird opened the doors of the shack and literally blew the whole gang out of bed. That settled the rest question for the night, or morning, and the Commish led the whole crazy pajama clad crew down to the water's edge, about 50 feet away. Lew Hess immediately froze to death and was carried back to his corn husk couch. The others paraded up and down on the beach—a rather unseemly proceeding for a fishing party—but were soon back under cover. At 4.30 breakfast was ready and at 5 the eager anglers were on the fishing grounds. To the consternation of all, the bay was too rough to allow of any fishing that day. That shows the damage that was done by old Boreas in getting his dates mixed. It was a rather heart-broken crowd, to say the least. But the M. L. E. C. is resourceful, if nothing else—nothing daunts those fellows—and shortly we find them at Cape May. There they found that the sea was calm and in a few moments they had hired a launch and were out on the waves of the broad Atlantic. I said the sea was calm, but McCrea didn't believe it, for he shortly gave up his breakfast. A rocking chair would upset that fellow, and unless he shows signs of better health his eligibility to membership in our historic organization of deep sea navigators will be seriously questioned. Well, the party caught a very nice mess of kingfish in a two-hour session. Returning to shore, the whole outfit donned bathing suits and took a much needed wash. Coming into Narberth about 7.30 P. M., the expedition looked like a hucksters' picnic. The return route from Cape May lay through many a fertile truck and fruit growing section, and the amount of eatables brought home was only limited by the capacity of the transportation medium. Each man had a basket of peaches and a basket of corn. Seb, the Second, had in addition enough beets, peppers, cucumbers, etc., to stock his larder for a month.

So ended a perfect day, and Clarence, our new Narberthian, is sure he struck it rich when he selected the "Year Round Home Town" as a place to hang up his hat.

Wouldn't it be awful if they prohibited the manufacture of talcum powder on the ground that some women use it to excess.

The fellow that said that truth was stranger than fiction must have known a thing or two. Apropos thereto and as justifying the remark, our Tax Collector tells a story, on the reliability of which he is prepared to make oath.

Ray says he sent a man in Narberth a small bill for personal tax, which was promptly paid. The taxpayer, however, happened to overlook the cash discount feature and Ray courteously sent him the amount in stamps—8 cents, I believe. Much to Ray's surprise, he received in reply a curt note stating that the writer was not in the habit of accepting postage stamps as currency, adding that if our Collector had no other means of making change he could keep his old postage stamps and be blown, or words to that effect. The stamps came back. Never a word of thanks, mind you, for calling attention to the overpayment. You can make your own comments—I'm stumped.

NO CUTS IN AMOUNTS FOR INSTITUTIONS HERE.

Governor Sproul Spares Montgomery County; Appropriations.

Notwithstanding the cuts made by Governor Sproul in the various appropriations to the institutions in the Commonwealth, not any applied to a hospital or home in and about Montgomery county. Approval was given to these appropriations, made by the Legislature, which recently adjourned:

Charity Hospital, Norristown, $24,000.
Homeopathic Hospital, Pottstown, $2,000.
Pottstown Hospital, $13,000.
Eagleville Sanitarium, $50,000.
Philadelphia Protectory for Boys, $24,000.
St. Joseph's Protectory for Girls, $7,000.
Julia White Priscilla Home for Aged Colored People, LaMott, $1,000.
Valley Forge Park Commission, $348,000.

The appropriation for the Norristown State Hospital for the Insane, as far as pertains to maintenance and care, is embodied in the general appropriation of $4,972,106 for this purpose throughout the State. No definite appropriation is had at this time, the special needs of the State Hospital having been embodied in a measure passed during the early days of the Legislature.

Harrisburg, July 25.—Appropriations made by the General Assembly of Pennsylvania for the two-year period ending in the summer of 1920 have been made effective in the record breaking total of $103,237,456.80. Governor Sproul reduced the $105,018,052.15 by $1,780,595.68, the smallest aggregate cut made in years.

The appropriations authorized this year contain $2,886,546.08, due to deficits occasioned by the high cost of living in State institutions, the deficiency in maintenance of the insane, including $200,000 unloaded from the 1915-1917 period, a warning to men at the head of institutions and departments that they are extraordinary grants and cannot be looked for next time.

The way the appropriation list as approved stands it is over $21,000,000 ahead of the $82,203,618.50 approved in 1917. The educational list this year does not contain the $18,000,000 for the common schools, as it did in the list issued two years ago. Then it appeared that educational objects received the sum of $21,154,402.22. The school appropriation was added in. This year "education" includes only the higher educational institutions and it aggregates $4,191,175, which added to the eighteen millions in the general bill for schools, makes over $22,000,000, and this does not include the $6,000,000 voted direct to help meet the teachers' salary increase.

State institutions get $13,215,073.51, against $8,499,886.73, two years ago; semi-State, $2,005,560.81, against $1,589,507.87; hospitals, $6,277,900, against $5,401,575. The total is run up this year by the big appropriations for the Capitol office building, the Delaware River bridge, the memorial bridge, highways, teachers' retirement fund, public welfare commission, mothers' pension, National Guard and the large deficiency inherited from the Brumbaugh Administration's handling of affairs and to its slashing the appropriations in 1917.

DID YOU EVER

Walk along the streets of Narberth during or shortly after a rain storm?

And get a face wash or a whack in the neck from a low hanging branch?

And did you ever "cuss" the fellow who allowed his trees to droop well over the sidewalk?

And did you ever go out in the rain and take your pruning shears and saw and cut the low hanging branches?

Or did you just intend to do it when it cleared off?

And then forget, or sit 'neath the lamp reading Our Town and say, "I should be annoyed about the other fellow?"

Maybe you don't have to go out in the rain, but you should act like a "reg'lar feller" once in a while.

The Fireside

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cowin and their daughter, Miss Marjorie Cowin, have returned to their Merion avenue home after a trip to Niagara Falls, through Lake Ontario and up the St. Lawrence River.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman H. Hubbard, of 316 Woodbine avenue, will be glad to learn that Mr. Hubbard's mother, who was seriously ill with rheumatism at her home in West Philadelphia, is now well on the road to recovery.

Mrs. Anna M. Owens, well known to all of the older residents of Narberth, is at present with her brother in Colorado Springs, Colo. Her many friends will be glad to know that she is well and enjoying her Western visit; also that she hopes to return to Narberth in a few months.

C. P. Cook has obtained the distributing agency for Rainey-Wood "Domestic" coke in Narberth, Wynnewood and Merion. In order for the public to become cognizant of the big saving features of this fuel, it would be advisable to follow very carefully the series of display advertisements which will be inserted in Our Town, dwelling upon the salient points and excellent quality of this coke.

Several months after the regular blooming season, a magnolia tree in Merion has broken forth into blossoms. Two flowers so far have appeared. Last April and May, when other magnolia trees in the city and vicinity were filled with flowers, the Merion magnolia failed to show a blossom. Buds appearing early were nipped by the frost, blackened and fell off. Moist atmosphere and heavy rains are the reason given by local florists for the strange action of the magnolia.

"Common Clay," a seven-act screen version of the stage play of the same name, to be shown at the Palace Theatre, Ardmore, on Wednesday, presents Fannie Ward in a "heart drama," or it may be said in all seriousness that the story touches the heart. On the legitimate stage the play, written by Cleves Kinkaid and known as the Harvard prize story, provided Jane Cowl with one of her most famous roles. There is an excellent symbolic touch in the two pictures of the roses, both fresh and faded, which appeals strongly to the imagination.

Residents of Merion will be interested to learn that to-day is the ninety-fifth anniversary of the death of Charles Thomson, one of the nativeborn Irishmen who signed the Declaration of Independence. Mr. Thomson was born in County Derry, Ireland, in 1729, and died in Lower Merion on August 16, 1824. His patriotic record and ripe old age, testifying to his temperate habits of living, should be an inspiration to everyone. Merionites in particular are asked to jot down this date in a diary or notebook and prepare for a fitting centennial five years hence.

Among the new arrivals in the ball game last Saturday were: Miss Frances Bea and Miss Anna Hall, of Philadelphia; Miss Alice Jenkins, Miss Marguerite Mueller, Miss Ruth Hoehling, Miss Thelma Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence P. Fowler. Among the regulars were: Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer G. Crowell and Dr. and Mrs. Romaine C. Hoffman. We also noticed in the stand Dr. Harry Hartley, Dr. O. J. Snyder and Mr. Robert J. Dothard. Of course, there were a large number of others, more or less socially prominent, but the names above are either regular attendants or ones who have lately found the time to show their interest in the game.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow townsman, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
